His Eminence Sakya Dungse Avikrita Vajra Rinpoche is one of the highest Lamas of the Sakya tradition of Tibetan Buddhism. Born into the illustrious Khön dynasty's Sakya Phuntsog Phodrang in 1993, he has received an uninterrupted stream of teachings and transmissions from his grandfather, HH Jigdal Dagchen Sakya, as well as many high Lamas of the Sakya lineage. We are very fortunate that His Eminence is taking time out from his studies in India to give the initiation of the Three Wrathful Ones in California.

His Eminence will bestow the authorising initiation (jenang) of this sacred transmission that comes from the Mahasiddha Legkyi Dorje. It combines Vajrapani, the embodiment of all the Buddha's power, together with Hayagriva and Garuda. It is considered a profound practice for clearing away all the different kinds of obstacles, sicknesses and negativities that hinder our practice of Dharma and our well-being.

His Eminence will also explain how to conduct a daily meditation and recitation of the Three Wrathful Ones, guiding us on how to best cultivate the benefits of this profound practice for our daily lives.
